Long before Daniels Jack was moving dance floors in the Southeast, USA the South African native was honing his craft in the motherland.

Born and raised in Johannesburg, Dan was always musically inclined, having played the violin and bass guitar before graduating from Technicsdjmixclub with a gold certificate in 2009.

Fast forward several years and Dan has solidified himself as a mainstay in the U.S. underground scene, having the pleasure to be direct support for major players in the industry including Green Velvet, Paco Osuna, Chris Lake, Mark Farina, Nora En Pure, Benny Benassi and Porter Robinson to name a few.

Dan is also making waves on the production front, having received support from heavyweight artists such as Stacey Pullen, Billy Kenny, Mikey Lion, Stanny Abram and Ill Phill. His EP 'Flow' charted at #2 in the Beatport top 100 future house releases and his track 'Music Makes Me' charted at #5 on the Trackitdown Top 100.

Dan's music has also been supported on MTV UK during the hit TV show 'Geordie Shore.' You can find his tracks on highly reputable record labels across the globe including Desert Hearts, Nervous Records, House of Hustle and Simplify.

There's not a dance floor Dan isn't ready to control. With an undeniable passion for music and determination to share it with the world, the rise of Daniels Jack has only just begun
